The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the House of the Lord for ever.

For everything there is an appointed season, And a time for everything

under heaven-

A time for sowing, a time for reaping;

A time for sharing, a time for caring.

A time for loving, a time for giving;

A time for remembering, a time for parting.

You have made everything beautiful in its time

For everything You do remains forever.

Services for Joseph Charles Walter, 90, Corning, were held Tuesday, March 22, from Roland-Lindsay Golden Rule Funeral Home here, the Rev. Bob Palser officiating. Burial was in Methodist Grove Cemetery, a rural cemetery near here.

Mr. Walter was born July 30, 1903, at Brooks to Henry and Ida Moser Walter, and died Sunday, March 20, at Colonial Manor Nursing Home.

He married Doris Pepper in 1924 at Brooks, and Erma Cochran in 1945 in Troy, Kan. Mr. Walter moved to St. Joseph, Mo., in 1937, and in 1946 returned to Corning. In 1968 he moved to Forsyth, Mo., where he lived until returning to Corning in 1978. He was an electrician, plumber, and farmer, retiring in 1969.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Doris, in 1944, and his second wife, Erma, in 1987; an infant son: his parents; and two brothers.

Survivors include a son Robert (wife Waunita) Walter of Corning; one grandson; and two great-grand-children.

Casket bearers were Jerry Walter, Roy Spring, Don Walter, Quentin Carlson, Charles Cloyd, and Elmer West.

Juanita M. Walter APRIL 6, 2000.

Juanita M. Walter, 83, Lenox, was born to Hugh Bruce and Glenna Mae (Wood) Wyant on March 9, 1917, in Ringgold County. She died March 26, 2000, at the Lenox Care Center in Lenox.

She attended grade school in the Lincoln Township School in Ringgold County, then Clearfield High School one year before moving to Lenox and graduating from high school there in 1934. She taught a rural school northwest of Lenox until her marriage to Glendon (Denny) Walter Feb. 15, 1936, at her parents' home.

The Walters farmed north of Stringtown for more than 50 years, where she was always active in the farming operation. They both enjoyed camping, first with a tent, then a fifth wheel trailer, and the family has fond memories of camping at the Iowa State Fair.

Mrs. Walter was a talented seamstress and gardener, upholstered furniture, liked wood working, refurbishing antiques and attending auctions looking for treasures.

She was baptized at the Clearfield Presbyterian Church then was an active member of the Salem Brethren Church of Lenox where she was a Sunday School teacher and volunteer in the community.

In November 1991 she had a stroke and in January 1992 she made her residence at the Lenox Care Center.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Denny in 1991; and infant daughter Glenda Sue.

Survivors include her son Mervin Walter, Prescott; daughter Corene Walter of Lenox; six grandchildren; seven greatgrandchildren; and sister-in-law Bertha Walter of Lenox.

Memorials are to the Prescott Fire Department or the Lenox

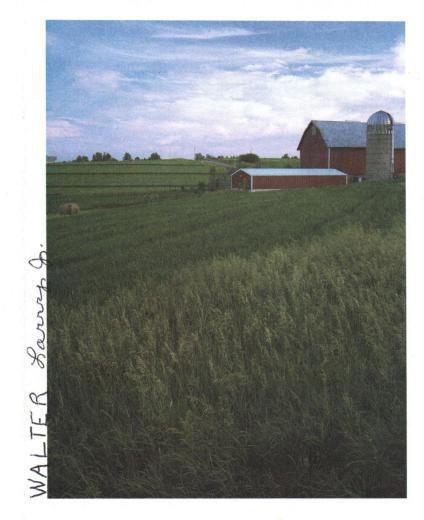

Ambulance Fund.

Larry was happiest working side by side with his wife and children in his cattle and farming operation.

His happiest moments were spent with his grandchildren, attending auctions and livestock shows, tending his cattle and checking the progress of his crops.

Larry is survived by his wife Sharon; a son Robert and his wife Laurie; two daughters, Anita Mittag and her husband Craig and Estee Walter. Also surviving are three grandchildren, who were very special to him, Tucker and Tessa Mittag and Tommy Walter; his father Dale Walter; his sister Kathryn Mallard and her husband Michael England, his mother-in-law Lola Blazek; sisterin-law Joyce Green and her husband Jon; brother-in-law Dick Blazek and his wife Debby and seven nieces and nephews.

I do not choose to be a common man. It is my right to be uncommon -- if I can. I seek opportunity -- not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the State look after me. I want to take the calculated risk: to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed.

I refuse to barter incentive for dole. I prefer the challenges of life to the guaranteed existence: the thrill of fulfillment to the stale calm of Utopia. I will not trade freedom for beneficence, nor my dignity for a handout. I will never cower before any master nor bend to any threat.

It is my heritage to stand erect, proud and unafraid, to think and act for myself, to worship as I please, enjoy the benefit of my creations and to face the world boldly and say, "this I have done." All this is what it means to be an American.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In Memory Of

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*Affirmation of Faith

We know that in everything God works for good with those who love Him, who are called according to His purpose. What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who is against us? Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, neither angels, nor other heavenly rulers or powers, neither present nor the future, neither the world above nor the world below, there is nothing in creation that will ever by able to separate us from the love of God which is ours through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Twenty Third Psalm The Kord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Mea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Kord for ever.

The Chain

We knew little that morning, that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, that day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide: And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

George Richard Weston began his life journey on September 28, 1933, in Percival, Iowa the son of Claude Weston and Alice Golde Weston. He grew up attending school near Nebraska City. On August 25, 1969, he was united in marriage to Nellie Diane Schaffer in Maryville, Missouri. George had two daughters from previous marriage, Carolyn and Tammy. Together George and Diane were blessed with a son and daughter, Richard and Michelle.

George was tree-trimmer by trade, also mowing lawns and delivering the Omaha World Herald and Des Moines Register in Corning. He always enjoyed it when Diane took him on car rides in the country, often leading her astray, and confusing her as to her destination. This was a simple pleasure in life that he 'got a big kick out of' the last two years. They enjoyed yard sales and gardening when his health allowed them to be out and about. George was a loving husband, father and grandfather. He always looked forward to the visits from his two granddaugters, Gwendolyn and Esmeralda, who he dearly loved. George liked animals of all kinds, raising rabbits for his children to take to the fair when they were young.

Left to cherish George's memory are his wife Diane of Corning; a son, Richard Dean Weston of Corning; three daughters, Michelle Diane (Antonio) Vargas of Omaha; and Carolyn Hontz and Tammy Weston; and five granddaughters, Esmeralda and Gwendolyn Vargas; Amy and Kelli Hontz and Cassandra Weston.

Preceding George in death are his parents Claude and Alice Weston; four sisters, Opal, Verlee, Flora and Veda; six brothers, Bill, Ed, Edwin, Albert and two at infancy.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn his passing

White, the youngest, residing at Red Oak. The trip was made in the prairie schooner in which all their earthly possessions were packed. In 1869 they removed to Adams county and obtained raw prairie land which is now one of the fine homes of the county. The lumber for the house was hauled from Des Moines and strange to say after nearly fifty years of sheltering the family the dwelling is still in good condition and is still being used. Mr.

'Twas The Night Jesus Came

'Twas the night Jesus came and all through the house Not a person was praying, not one in the house. The Bibles were left on the shelf without care, For no one thought that Jesus would come there. The children were dressing to crawl into bed. Not once ever kneeling or bowing a head. And mom in her rocker with baby in her lap Was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.

When out of the east there rose such a clatter,
I sprang to my feet to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and lifted the sash!
When what to my wondering eyes should appear
But angels proclaiming the Jesus was here!
The light of His face made me cover my headIt was Jesus returning, just as He said.
And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth,
I cried when I saw Him in spite of myself.
In the Book of Life which He held in His hand,
Was written the name of every saved man.
He spoke not a word as He searched for my name;
When He said. "It's not here" my head hung in shame.

The people whose names had been written with love, He gathered to take to His Father above. With those who were ready He rose without a sound, While all the rest were left standing around. I fell to my knees, but it was too late; I had waited to long and thus sealed my fate. I stood and I cried as they rose out of sight, Oh, if only I'd known that this was the night.

In the words of this poem the meaning is clear; The coming of Jesus is now drawing near. There's only one life and when comes the last call We'll find that the Bible was true after all.

'A Special Man'

A man who had a smile on his face and a joke to tell.

A man who fought . . . fought for what he believed in.

A man who dedicated himself to others and his community.

A man who always had time . . .

A man who taught his children how to live, love and grow.

A man who gave his wife 48 years true love and happiness.

A man who was a friend to all he touched.

A man who made the word "Dad" have special meaning.

We honor him and his memory.

ROLAND-JOHNSON-RITCHIE FUNERAL HOME

Corning, Iowa

Effie Alice Templeton Wilkinson began her life journey on February 15, 1903 at Cole Camp Creek, Benton County, Missouri as the daughter of Thomas and Emma Bowers Templeton and entered into her eternal rest on February 23, 2004, at the age of 101 years and 8 days. She was the last of the family of twelve children.

Effie was reared in the hills of the Missouri Ozarks, moving to Iowa as a teenager.

On March 8, 1920, she was united in marriage with Charles Harold Wilkinson at Henderson, Iowa. Six children were born to bless this union. Effie and Harold were fortunate to share sixty-two years of marriage before Harold's death in 1982.

Effie and Harold made their home in Brooks area for sixty-two years, she continued to live there for twenty-two years after his passing. Like many of the hardy pioneer stock of that time, hard work was a constant companion just in order to survive. Growing a large garden and preserving it meant the difference between being hungry or well fed. Effie made all of their clothing and wore out a couple of sewing machines in the process. She enjoyed her association with the Brooks Church and the W.S.C.S. and later the U.M.W. She enjoyed helping with the church dinners and quilting on the quilts that were offered for sale at their annual church bazaar each fall. Being family oriented she enjoyed traveling to visit her family throughout the United States. She was grateful for the time shared with Letha, especially the last ten years.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, two sons, Ernest E. and Harold Wilkinson, Jr., seven brothers, four sisters; a son-in-law, Paul A. Harlow; and five grandchildren, Karen, Jacqueline, Allen, and Virgil Wilkinson and Mike Harlow.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughter Letha Harlow of Brooks; her three sons, Roylan and his wife Virginia Wilkinson of Redding, California; Paul and his wife Helen Wilkinson of Otoe, Nebraska; Bob and his wife Dorothy Wilkinson of Bella Vista, Arkansas; her two daughters-in-law, Pearl Wilkinson of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania and Lois Wilkinson of Carbon; 28 grandchildren; 65 greatgrandchildren; 40 great-great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn Effie's passing.

DOLORES E. WILLETT

Dolores Ella Olds Willett was born March 24, 1916, in Adams County, Iowa, to Lloyd and Stella (Reynolds) Olds, and entered into rest February 4, 1997, at the Nursing and Rehab Center in Corning, Iowa, at the age of 80 years, 10 months and 11 days.

She graduated from Corning High School in 1934 as salutatorian of her class.

Dolores was united in marriage with Charles Richard Willett on December 22, 1937, at Parkersburg, Iowa. Two children were born to bless this union.

Their first home was a farm north of Villisca in Montgomery County. After three moves to different farms, they purchased a farm south of Dickieville where they lived for 39 years. Dolores drove a tractor and worked along side her husband in the field. She also worked at the Union Carbide Plant in Red Oak for 3 years.

Dolores was a very sociable person and loved being around people. She was a member of the Social Hour Club, the DYD Club and Just Friends. She belonged to the U.M.W. Circle III of the United Methodist Church and enjoyed many one-day trips on the trolley. Her grandchildren often joked about having to make an appointment on her social calendar.

She was preceded in death by her parents and husband.

Dolores is survived by a son, Donald Willett (wife Jan) and a daughter, Donnis Richey (husband Sam), all of Corning, Iowa; a brother, Walter Olds (wife Betty) of Berkeley, California; four grandchildren, Dawn Ashenfelter (husband Donald) of Corning, Iowa, David Willett of Cincinnati, Ohio, Chuck Richey of Georgetown, Texas, and Cheryl Richey of Creston, Iowa; two great-grandchildren, Sayard and Logan Ashenfelter of Corning, Iowa.

Her grandchildren were the shining stars in her life. They will remember their Grandma for her loving hugs, her "special" sugar cookies, lumpy cream of wheat (a lump was good luck), turtle pancakes, her storeroom full of wonderful treasures, and most of all her unconditional love.

"MY OTHER MOTHER"

Let me tell about my "Other Mother". She once told me that her goal in life was to be as good to Sam and me as her mother-in-law had been to her, and I think we can both say that she attained her goal.

I can't recall ever being turned down when I asked her for help-whether it was baby sitting my kids (and there was always the dog)--or crocheting little doilies for a project I had going, or helping me with a sewing problem.

When she tried to teach me how to embroider, I think I saw her nearly lose her patience until she finally figured out that I wasn't really dumb--just left handed.

I remember when my kids were so very sick with the chicken pox and I was at my wits end because I couldn't get them to eat anything and they needed liquids so badly. Well, you guessed it. Grandma knew exactly what to do. Here she came with a big box of Popsicles and made us all feel better.

I remember saying, when I would complain about something my husband had done. She would look at him and say, "Donald, I did not raise you that way"--always with a smile on her face.

When she was in the hospital and nursing home, she would apologize to us for taking so much of our time. We always told her that she had always been there for us, and now it was her turn--for us to be there for her.

She will live in my heart forever...this "Other Mother" of mine.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Connie Williamson NOVEMBER 30, 1940 - TULY 14, 2009

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it: "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied: "My son, my precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone release me, let me go - I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for awhile that we must part So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome."

Sunset and evening star;
And one clear call for me!
And may there be

When I put out to sea,

From out our bourne

The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilat

When I have crost the bar.

He Only Takes the Best

God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put His arms around her and whispered, "Come with Me."

With tear-filled eyes we watched her suffer and fade away.

Although we loved her deeply, we could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hard-working hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

He proudly served in the U.S. Army 82nd Airborne during the Korean War from 1946 to 1948 and then again in 1950 to 1951. On Nov. 3, 1951, he married Donna Marie Sexton in Dyersville, Iowa. He and Donna moved to Des Moines where Bill attended television and radio school.

In 1956 they moved to Creston to raise their family and start a business of their own, Wood TV. They bought the family home on Montgomery Street, where after retirement, Bill and Donna spent many hours working and enjoying their home and gardens. Bill was a member of VFW, Holy Spirit Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus, the Elks Lodge and the Eagles Club. But many of his Crestmoor Golf Club buddies and close friends simply knew him as "Woody." Remembering him are his partner in life, Donna; and six children, Mike, Teri, Scott, Russ, Maria and Annette. And his 17 grandchildren will take with them memories and qualities of their Grandpa Wood.

-INTERMENT-Mt. Zion Cemetery Matt,

I'm just writing this to tell you good-bye. You helped me so much every time I needed you. I remember all the happy times, the camping and fishing trips. The kids loved them and was always looking for the next one. Tyler always said "Matt is going to take me deer hunting when I get big".

Every Sunday morning, you had to watch your hunting and fishing shows. You loved going to Kylie's t-ball games. You were so proud of her for everything that she did.

It didn't seem to matter what we did, if it was going out for supper, going to a concert or just sitting in front of the tv. I remember going to the Iowa Speedway to Dale Earnhardt Jr. and you were so excited. I think it was one of the best days of your life and I was there to spend it with you.

Well, we always called each other "special friend", so I guess this is good-bye "special friend", my best friend. The kids and I will love you always and forever. We love you so much.

Love you, Jordan
