My Friend, My Love, My Angel

God sends us angels in many ways, with many faces. Angels to spread light and angels to spread love....

To me God sent you. A friend, a love, a light - A light for the days when I see blue, A love to shower me both day and night. A touch of your hand, a walk along the shore, a shelter in the rain.

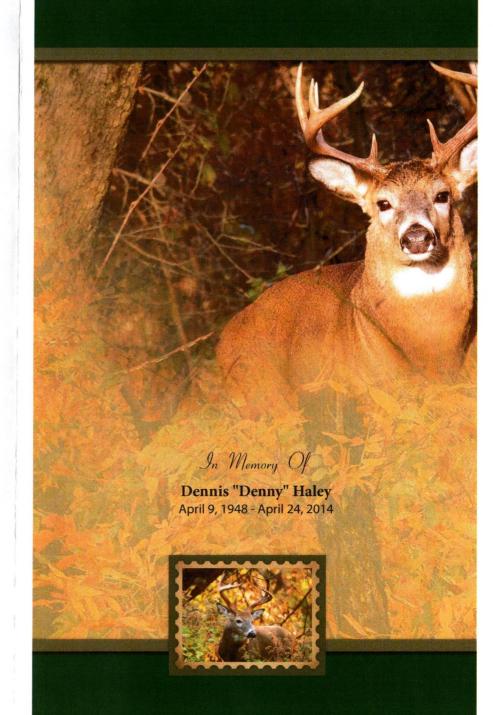

I love you my friend, my love, my angel. The light is as bright as the sun on a walk in the woods. Your love blows the breeze against my face.

Angel's wings hold the laughter and tears of our children. Their plans, hopes and dreams, shine through the shadows on angel's wings.

When the light grows dim and the day is done, memories fill my light, friendship fills my eyes, and on angel's wings - love fills my heart.

God's Garden Must Be Beautiful

God looked around the garden, And found an empty space. He looked down upon the earth, And saw your tired face. He put His arms around you And lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful For He only takes the best. He knew that you were weary, and He knew you were in pain. He knew that you would never be well on earth again. He saw the roads were getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered peace be thine.

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone release me, let me go - I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for awhile that we must part So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome."

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times, and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories I leave
Behind... when day is done.

ERNEST HARDISTY

Ernest Dale Hardisty, son of Solomon Lee and Elizabeth Marie (Fudge) Hardisty, was born June 29, 1921 in Quincy, Adams County, Iowa. He passed away September 1, 2001 at St, Joseph Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska at the age of 80 years, 2 months and 3 days.

On August 15, 1942 Ernest and Velda Schaffer were married, just recently celebrating their 59th wedding anniversary. During World War II Ernest served in the Army Air Corp, receiving his discharge in 1946. He then returned to Iowa where he farmed and lived the rest of his life.

Ernest was a member of Farm Bureau; past member of the Corning American Legion; Adams County Auxiliary Deputies Association; Corning Methodist and Baptist church choirs.

During his years on his farm north of Corning he served as the school director for Washington # 8 and was part of the creation of Corning Community's countywide school district. His son remembers an end of the year parent and student softball game where his dad jumped the school fence to make a catch.

His hobbies then were rock collecting in the Nodaway River and the Mt. Etna rock quarry. After rains he and his son would walk the rock bars collecting agates for jewelry and coffee tables.

During the winters all the neighbors got together and hunted coyote with their dogs. Snowy winters gave them over 100 pelts, which were sold, and all the families went out for supper at a nice restaurant. He was also an avid red fox trapper, with many nights giving him two or more pelts.

Many metal projects were completed for his son and two grandsons. He made carriers for jeeps; SUV's; Wells Fargo boxes; lawn ornaments; wind chimes and anything the family could dream up!

Ernest loved animals, especially his little black dog "Bear". He was very proud of the excellent hog herd he had developed over his lifetime. Charlie, his current boar, was the tamest and best genetic line ever.

Surviving Ernest is his wife, Velda Hardisty; a son, William (Bernadine) Hardisty of Avoca, Iowa; two grandchildren: Lance (Marilyn) Hardisty of Lafayette, Louisiana and Chad Hardisty of Bellevue, Washington; three sisters: Velma (Robert) Cox of Corning, Iowa; Marie Roach of Boulder, Colorado; Betty (Bruce) Travis of Creston, Iowa; two brothers: Paul (Evelyn) Hardisty of Corning, Iowa and Henry (Joyce) Hardisty of Paramount, California

Preceding Ernest in death were his parents; two brothers: James and Harold Hardisty and a brother-in-law, Clifford Roach.

She always prayfully watched for us,
Anxious if we were late.
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate.

And tho' we mocked her tenderly
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home,
would seem more safe
Because she waited there.

Her thoughts were so full of us,
She never could forget,
And so I think that where she is,
She must be watching yet.

Waiting 'til we come home to her,
Anxious if we are late.
Watching from Heaven's Window,
Leaning on Heaven's Gate.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Lond is my shephend;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

An Old Farmer Leaves His Land

He is done forever with spring plowing,
And walking thru the fields,
on Sunday morning
To see that all is well.

The whippoorwills, whose first call he eagerly awaited,
Return but he does not hear them now.
The acres that he loved lie fallow - gone back to brush and sprouts.

I have said that he is done with fields and plowing Yet I wonder. On Life's other side has he awakened
To tend again the farmlands of the Lord?

The Lond is my shephend;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Comfort

There is a tower of strength

For you and me —

'Tis that which we call faith

And as the sea

Oft dashes on the rocks

To no avail

So storms may come to us;

But in the gale

We lean upon that faith

And soon once more

We see a beacon light —

It is the shore.

Melvin "Jack" John Hill began his life journey on January 10, 1916. He was born at home in rural Taylor County, Iowa the son of Charles Edwin Hill and Elizabeth Catherine Madden Hill. Jack grew up attending school in the Lenox area. On December 22, 1940 he was united in marriage to Betty Jane Law in Prescott, Iowa. To this loving union four children were born.

Dora Marie Grimm Hinton was born November 19, 1922, in Sharpsburg, Iowa the daughter of Thomas McKinley Grimm and Mabel Ruth Hayes Grimm. She grew up in the Sharpsburg area, graduating from high school in 1940. On November 1, 1941, she was united in marriage to L. Ray Hinton in Maryville, Missouri. The couple lived in southwest Iowa in various towns and farms. L. Ray passed away in 1967. After his death, Dora moved to Corning residing here until her death. She held various jobs over the years, helping her husband running Buena Vista County and Taylor County farms. She worked as a secretary for Farm Bureau and the National Farmer's Organization; she also worked at Country Haven.

Dora was a wonderful seamstress who could do anything with double knit. She would make rugs, quilts and crocheted tablecloths. She also worked for Turners Clothing Store as a seamstress for many years. Dora took great pride in her family, babysitting for all of her grandchildren. She was a very independent woman and had to fill the shoes of both mother and father to her children since her husband had passed away when she was 44. Dora enjoyed working in her garden and always had better luck with her flowers than she did with her produce. Money was always tight for her, but she made due, even starting savings accounts for all of her grandchildren. She never forgot the birthdays, and always put other people's needs before her own. She was also a wonderful cook, no one ever went without at her table! One of the highlights of her life was a trip to Hawaii in 1988 with her sisters; of course, she brought something home for each family member.

Left to cherish Dora's memory are her four children, Ed Hinton and wife Janet Stallard of Lawrence, Kansas; Ron Hinton and Judy Johnson of Corning; Wanda Goodson and husband Carl of Corning; and Gordon Hinton and wife Sally of Corning; a sister, Donna Eighmy and husband John of Conway; twelve grandchildren and four greatgrandchildren.

Preceding Dora in death are her parents, her husband Ray in 1967 and a sister, Phyllis Morris.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn Dora's passing.

There is a tower of strength
For you and me —
'Tis that which we call faith
And as the sea
Oft dashes on the rocks
To no avail
So storms may come to us;
But in the gale
We lean upon that faith
And soon once more
We see a beacon light —
It is the shore.

LAST WILL OF MR. FARMER

I leave:

To my heirs, my overdraft at the bank--maybe they can explain it.

To my banker, my soul--he has the mortgage on it anyway.

To my neighbor, my clown suit--he'll need it if he continues to farm as he has in the past.

To the ASCS, my grain bin--I was planning to let them take it next year anyway.

To the county agent, 50 bushels of corn to see if he can hit the market-I never could.

To the junk man, all my machinery--he's had his eye on it for years.

To my undertaker, a special request-I want six implement and fertilizer dealers for my pallbearers. They are used to carrying me.

To the weatherman, rain and sleet and snow for the funeral, please--no sense in having good weather now.

To the grave digger--don't bother. The hole I'm in should be big enough.

Norvell was proud to live in Adams County and it was evident in his endless support in the Adams County area. Norvell enjoyed researching the history of Adams County. He also spent many hours researching the history of Carbon, which is displayed in the Carbon Hall. Norvell was instrumental in organizing the annual Coal Miners Reunion where he currently served as President.
