Twenty-third Psalm

he LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea,

I wait the muffled oar,

No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care....

"Twenty-third Psalm"

HE Lord is my shep-herd, I shall not want; He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

When I put out to sea.

For the from out our bourne

The flood may bear me far.
I hope to see my Pilat—

COMFORT

Oh, deem not they are blest alone Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep; The Power who pities man has shown A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again The lids that overflow with tears; And weary hours of woe and pain Are promises of happier years.

For God has marked each sorrowing day, And numbered every secret tear, And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay For all his children suffer here.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

She loved her church, and participated in the choir, and was a very active member of the Quilters group. Her hobby was making craft items of all kinds, and crocheting gifts to give to others. She always decorated her porch windows, for various holidays and seasons, adding a touch of beauty and fun to the neighborhood.

A SPIRIT OF LOVE

(In memory of Ruth Scott)

A friend, a wife, a mother A servant of the Lord, Ruth was filled with love and kindness, She had a song within her heart.

She reached out to those around her And gave a helping hand, Sharing, serving, always willing Brave and loyal to the end.

Sadly missed by all her family, Husband Leo, and son John, Daughter Betty and daughter Kathy, And grandchildren, whom she adored.

A host of friends and many relatives Have a void in their hearts today But many fond and loving memories Are firmly planted, there to stay.

Forgive us Father, for in our sorrow
We want to keep our loved ones near,
But we know each life was given
And when You call, our loved ones hear.

Help us to be strong and faithful, Let us trust, and be not afraid, Ruth now lives in heavenly glory Where there is no earthly pain.

She now sings with all the angels, In that heavenly choir above; Let us hear her voice in chorus, Reaching down to all, in love. Yes, Ruth's spirit lives forever, In our hearts, she is here to stay. She has found her home in glory, She is not gone....she is just away.

* * * * * * *

"Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
Look full in His wonderful face
And the things of this earth will grow
strangelt dim,
In the light of His glory and grace."

Jesus will heal all wounds. Through Him, Ruth will be made whole. Think how beautiful and peaceful her life will now be....no pain, no suffering, and a joyful time of waiting, until she is again united with her loved ones.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Lond is my shephend;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

You brought us such pleasure, some heartaches, many tears, We love you so much, --but we all have fears. Fear of keeping, fear of losing, fear of being alone, When the time is right, God will take you home.

You'll never be forgotten, you'll stay in our hearts, Because in our minds Kari Lee, we'll never part. We love you... —Music By—

Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for mel
And may there be no moaning of the Bar
When I put out to sea,

For the from out our bourne
of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face,
When I have crost the bar

A Tribute To

HARRY B. SICKLER

At the age of nine, Harry Sickler became a salesman. Riding his pony, he would travel the neighborhood north of Carbon, selling Christmas cards.

Several years ago he recalled the following while dictating his life's story: "As I look back now, that beginning had quite an impact on my life. Salesmanship was to be my companion for many years."

Harry was representative of that generation of salesmen and hard workers; a generation that bridged the gap, held things together during the Great Depression; then moved ahead with thrust and initiative to accept still further challenges.

Generations come aboard, make their contributions and then move on. It is a natural, continual process, ongoing since the beginning of man.

His generation has recorded its contributions of human and community needs, often with his leadership and that salesmanship he spoke of. He is especially remembered for his untiring drive in helping to make Rosary Hospital a true reality.

The community has been nurtured and has grown with their efforts, just as it was advanced by the generations before them; and just as it will be by the generation now imprinting its image on our ever changing and continuing heritage.

The mileposts of the generations roll by and the obligations are fulfilled and duly recorded - each noting a movement ahead to the exalted summit where some day all generations will become one.

"Twenty-third Psalm"

HE Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MARK ARTHUR SINNING

Mark Arthur Sinning, the son of Wilton H. and Jean Brandt Sinning, was born on October 26, 1946 in Estherville, Iowa; and died in the Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena, California on October 30, 1982.

In 1947 the family moved to Emery, South Dakota, and in 1952 to Corning, Iowa, where Mark graduated from high school in 1964. He attended Hastings College for 1½ years and then enlisted in the nuclear program of the Navy for six years. After schooling in many places, he served aboard several destroyers and aircraft carriers and spent a year in DaNang as head of shops.

He earned a degree in Mechanical Engineering at Montana State U. in Bozeman and then was assistant engineer at Sheldon Jackson College in Sitka, Alaska for two years. He entered Fuller Seminary in September of 1981 to fulfill a boyhood ambition of becoming a missionary engineer.

Given unlimited faith in God's control, every small event or large crisis wasleft to God's caring, control and disposition. He shared and gave everything he possessed, but most of all, he gave himself - a quiet hug, counsel if wanted, always a prayer. The relationship he had with God was carried out in his relationships with people. He was willing and eager to do all things and abandon all things for the love of God, and he was and felt the wonderful sustaining power of God to see him through the last bitter week.

He is survived by his parents; his sister Diane and her husband, David Bradley and Scott and Jill of Anaheim, Calif.; his sister, Judy and her husband, Michael Storin and Joel and Carrie of Denver, Colo.; his brother David and his wife Cindy, also of Denver; aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, besides many, many friends.

ED SLEZAK

Ed Slezak, son of Thomas and Barbara Zajicek Slezak, was born October 13, 1884 near Williamson, Iowa in Adams County and entered into rest at the Lenox Care Center, Lenox, Iowa on February 14, 1988, at the age of 103 years, 4 months and 1 day.

He was united in marriage August 15, 1910 to Theresa S. Fickel at Fontanelle, Iowa. To this union three children were born, two daughters, Maxine and Claudine and a son, Eldon who died in infancy.

Ed spent most of his life in the Carl community, moving to Corning in 1964. After his wife's death he remained in his own home until it seemed best for him to go to a nursing home. The last  $12\frac{1}{2}$  years of his life have been spent at the Lenox Care Center, the only time he has not lived in Adams County.

Farming through the depression and drought years of the 1930's and 40's became his life's work. He saw many changes come in farming during his long life span. He took great pride in his horses and his Jersey cows. After he was not able to farm he spent much time raising a big vegetable and flower garden and was always happiest when sharing them with family and friends.

Ed had a wonderful memory and those who went to see him marveled at the visits they had with him. He enjoyed his radio and playing his harmonica.

An open house was held on his 90th birthday and again on his 100th birthday. He enjoyed them both so much for he always enjoyed people.

He was preceded in death by his parents, an infant son, his wife, seven sisters and two brothers.

Ed is survived by his two daughters, Maxine Lowther and husband Eldon of Corning, Iowa and Claudine Wilson and husband Joe of St. Joseph, Mo., nieces and nephews who were very dear to him and many cousins and friends.

Interment

Corning, Iowa

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,

Or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,

If so we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,

As any friend could say;

Perhaps you were not there at all,

Just thought of us that day,

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you so much whatever the part.

The Twenty Third Psalm The Bord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Mea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: Por thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Kord for ever.

PSALM 121

I will lift up mine eyes to the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Comfort

There is a tower of strength

For you and me —

Tis that which we call faith

And as the sea

Oft dashes on the rocks

To no avail

So storms may come to us;

But in the gale

We lean upon that faith

And soon once more

We see a beacon light —

It is the shore.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

A Traveler Coming Home

A traveler ventured forth one day, upon a long and winding road with faith and trust to lead the way, with strength and will to bear her load.

And at a slow but steady pace, in cold of storm, in warmth of sun, she journeyed on from place to place and gained some value from each one.

Until at last one quiet night, she climbed a hill's soft rounding crest and saw afar a single light that seemed to promise peace and rest.

And following its glow
she came upon the house in which it shone.
A voice inside called out her name and told her she was truly home.

Now all of us must travel too like hers, our paths wind slowly on and surely when the course is through, a welcome comfort waits beyond.

May we believe that sweet content is earned by all those miles passed and never doubt each traveler's meant to reach a loving home at last.

Irene belonged to the Neighborhood Ladies Club and when it was your turn to host the club, it was time to paint, paper and clean the house! After Richard and Ellen left home, Irene worked at the Farmer's Coop Creamery in Corning. However, the greatest joy in her life were here grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She spent all the time she could with them, helping to guide them through life. She was also a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church and Altar Society

Left to cherish Irene's memory are her daughter Ellen Seaton and husband Bobby of Corning; daughter-in-law Pat Sullivan of Soldier; eight grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren, Richard and Sheri Zadina, Cara, Kristin and Aleyna of Rowlett, Texas; Bill and Kathy Zadina, Zachary and Jackie of Corning; Joe Zadina and Melody Olson and Andy of Corning; Sara Olson of Kansas City, Missouri; Stacy, Tony and Kaden Krauth of Council Bluffs; Colleen and Jeff Bottjen, Jacob, Courtney and Cassidy of Crete, Nebraska; Michelle and Mark Lepp, Sophie and Claire of St. James, Minnesota; Michael and Samritra Sullivan, Teran, Riley, Quentin, Xavier, Zander and Wyatt of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and Tony Sullivan of Soldier; two sisters, Gladice Hoyt and Goldie Butrick of Plattsmouth, Nebraska and many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn Irene's passing.

Grammie

She is such a special lady generous, warm and kind. And never another like her could you ever hope to find.

She cheered our lives, warmed our heart, and filled us with her love, She taught us how to live each day thanking God above.

And I again thank the Lord for allowing me to be Close to her when I was small and still close through memories.

Although she is so fragile and I so far away I think with joy of all the times we went to Grammie's for the day.

Of the goodies we would eat there, the stories that she read, Games of hide the thimble, the smell of baking bread.

Her cold, cold hands and warm, warm heartthe hugs, her laugh, her eyes, Her smile, love pats, and kisses and the answers to our "why's."

Her patience and understanding, her humor, her strength, her peace, Her tenderness, her beauty, her faith which never ceased.

I pass on to you my memories, please cherish and hold dear, The love that we called "Grammie," the love that's always near.

That saved a wretch like me!

The Lond is my shephend;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it:
"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied: "My son, my precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

DEATHS

Dr. H. L. Sweet Passes Away.

Hhe people of Prescott and vicinity are sad to hear of the sudden death of Dr. H. L. Sweet. He has made his home for some time with his daughter Mrs. W. W. Fees of Mt. Etna, but has been spending the winter at St. Andrews Place, California, and at this place death occurred. Dr. Sweet had doctored there for many years. He leaves relatives as well as many friends who are grieved to learn of his demise.

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea,

I wait the muffled oar,

No harm from Him can come to me

On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care....

The Twenty Third Psalm he Kord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's some. Mea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Bord for ever.
