The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Woman, a Lady, a Girl
Because she was all—she brightened our world.

A wife and a mother—she did both so well!

She worked, she played—we couldn't always tell.

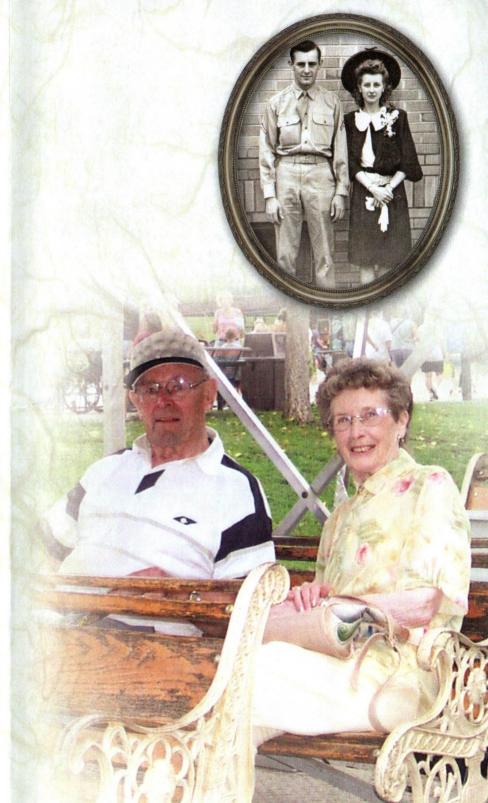

She lived by example—she laughed and she cried.

She was who she was—that we all admired.

We must go on without her—not easy to do.

But the way she inspired us—will help see us through.

We could go on and on, but suffice to say—
She was simply THE BEST—we'll just leave it that way.

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea, I wait the muffled oar, No harm from Him can come to me On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care....

Comfort

There is a tower of strength
For you and me —
'Tis that which we call faith
And as the sea
Oft dashes on the rocks
To no avail
So storms may come to us;
But in the gale
We lean upon that faith
And soon once more
We see a beacon light —
It is the shore.

PSALM 121

I will lift up mine eyes to the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea, I wait the muffled oar, No harm from Him can come to me On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care....

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must; Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a time that we must part; So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on; So if you need me, call and I will come. Tho' You can't see or touch me, I'll be near, All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say --"Welcome Home".

~ author unknown

Blessed is the mother who follows the Lord, so her children can learn and can grow . . . the unselfish mother who holds on with love, yet knows when it's time to let go.

Blessed is the mother whose faith keeps her going through trials and traumas and cares, who handles the easy
with wisdom and love
and the not-quite-so-easy...with prayers.

Blessed is the mother
who meets all your needs
from the very first day of your birth,
Blessed is the mother
who shares so much love,
for she's God's special angel on earth.

Allen" Mac" McManis

July 18, 1936 - August 28, 2009

Allen Edwin Mc Manis "Mac", the son of Irma and Clyde McManis, was born on July 18, 1936 at Little Sioux, Iowa. Allen entered eternal rest on August 28, 2009 at Adair County Hospital in Greenfield, Iowa at the age of 73.

Allen grew up mostly in Corning and graduated from Corning High School in 1954. After graduation he blue grassed from Missouri to South Dakota for a short time before he started hauling rock and working at the rock quarry in Corning. On June 24, 1956, he married Eleanor King of Corning and shortly after in December of 1956 he and his wife moved to Long Beach, California where Allen worked at the GM plant. In 1957, the two moved to Colorado where he worked at Garnsy & Wheeler Ford where he learned body paint and upholstery and started his life-time love for working on vehicles. Allen was a very talented and highly respected entrepreneur. He and his wife started and owned many businesses in their years together where they always worked side by side. In 1958, the couple returned to Corning where Allen worked for Cambell & Tindall doing body work for a year before opening his own shop. He also joined the Army Reserves in 1958 and served six months active duty and staved in the reserves for eight years. In 1959, Allen and Eleanor opened their own body and upholstery shop, Mac's Body Shop, where the two worked hand in hand until 1971

The couple had their two children during that time: Rick, who was born in 1959 and Becky, who was born in 1964. Allen served as the Adam's County Deputy Sheriff for a few years beginning in 1969 upon graduating from the Law Enforcement Academy. In 1971 the couple purchased a farm northeast of Corning where they worked diligently together and lived there until 1982. After leaving the farm, Allen and Eleanor would winter in Florida where he laid brick and return in the summer where he helped out at Rays' Feed & Seed. It wasn't until 1984 that the two would re-open Mac' Body Shop and continued working on vehicles. During that time they also built and managed The Mighty Car Wash in 1994 and ran the body shop and car wash both until 1997. In 1998, the two opened the Lake Icaria Beach concession stand and ran it for eight years throughout the summer of 2005 until Allen was unable to do due to heart complications.

Allen loved many things throughout his life. He loved his wife dearly and treasured working side by side with her throughout their many years together. He truly enjoyed his family and friends and spent as much time with them as he could. Allen enjoyed working the Volkswagen bug that he and Eleanor purchased in 2001 and is still a work in progress. He loved fishing with the grandchildren whenever possible. He always loved seeing the ocean and mountains and would vacation in Florida through many winters. He had a sincere love for life and lived it to the fullest.

He is preceded in death by his parents: Clyde McManis, Irma and Lloyd Warren; sisters: Joyce Means, Peggy Armstrong and Diane Gelder; nephew, Clifford Haley; brothers-in-law, Jack Haley and Elmo Armstrong; and parents-in-law: Clarence and Anna King.

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

There is a tower of strength
For you and me —
'Tis that which we call faith
And as the sea
Oft dashes on the rocks
To no avail
So storms may come to us;
But in the gale
We lean upon that faith
And soon once more
We see a beacon light —
It is the shore.

August 29, 1929 - June 22, 2013

Virginia Irene (Cozad) Means was born on August 29, 1929 in Adams County, Iowa to Thomas and Hazel Cozad and entered into eternal rest on Saturday, June 22, 2013 at the Good Samaritan Center in Villisca, Iowa at the age of eighty-three years.

Virginia, known to many as "Janie", was raised in the Carbon area by her "Aunt Dickie" and "Uncle" Tom and Mary McMorran. They lived on a small farm where Janie learned to love, nurture and respect all the beautiful things that nature has to offer. She always had a special love for all dogs and birds.

Janie attended school until the 8th grade in the Carbon area.

Janie met, fell in love and was married to Kenneth Means on August 2, 1946 at the Methodist Church in Corning, Iowa. To this union five children were born: Judy Alice; Jerry Franklin; Sherry Lillian; Melody Irene and Tammy Lynn; seventeen grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Kenny and Janie remained in the Carbon area most of their entire, married life where they raised their family. Janie loved gardening and every year it was a "family tradition" to involve all their children in the planting, weeding, harvesting and preserving of all the goodies from the garden.

Janie worked for a short period of time outside the home at the Corner Café in Corning and Wellmans Dynamic's in Creston, fortunately for her she later found her "perfect job" raising and selling German Shepherd puppies from her home. Virginia's love for animals was exceeded only by her love for her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed all their visits and many stories and "special moments" were shared with grandma.

In 2004, she and Kenneth moved and made their home in Brooks, lowa. Kenneth passed away later that year.

Left to cherish her special memories are her children: Judy (husband Roger) Van Syoc of Sidney, Iowa; Melody (husband Joe) Zadina of Corning, Iowa and Tammy (husband Lynn) Means of Cumberland, Iowa; all of her grandchildren; a dear friend and son-in-law, Billy Yarrington; and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Preceding Virginia in death were her parents; Aunt and Uncle Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMorran; her husband Kenneth; daughter, Sherry Yarrington; and son, Jerry Means.

Comfort

There is a tower of strength
For you and me —
'Tis that which we call faith
And as the sea
Oft dashes on the rocks
To no avail
So storms may come to us;
But in the gale
We lean upon that faith
And soon once more
We see a beacon light —
It is the shore.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the Paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the Shadow of death, I will fear no evil: For thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the Presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow Me all the days of my life; and I will Dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Charles 'Chuck' Miller

Charles M. "Chuck" Miller, 72, was born Nov. 14, 1917, in Adams County, the son of Clarence M. and Jennie H. Neary Miller, and died Nov. 2, 1990, at his home.

He was a farmer and a member of the Lincoln Center

Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, and a son. Dennis Miller in 1961.

Texas; and four grandchildren.

Services were held Nov. 5 at the Roland-Lindsay Chapel in Corning with the Rev. Lawrence F. Burns officiating. Casket bearers were Jim Lee, Mike Moore, Stanley Roberts, Charles Mullen, Clarence Boswell and Paul Wynn. Honorary bearers were Dale Kimpson, Dale Calkins, Don Drennan, Bill Peterson, Verle Vogel and Alan McManis. Burial was in Victoria Cemetery in rural Cass County.

They buried a farmer today, Gave him back to the dirt from which he came.

Earlier his family and neighbors walked by, Looking at memories of a simple man's life.

A table of photos, toy tractors and cards, Telling the story of life on the farm.

There are the overalls he wore every day, Except Sunday, when he bowed his head to pray.

A seed corn cap, work gloves and his boots, All things that kept him close to his roots.

Not born in a barn, but not far away, From the fields where a boy learned how to play.

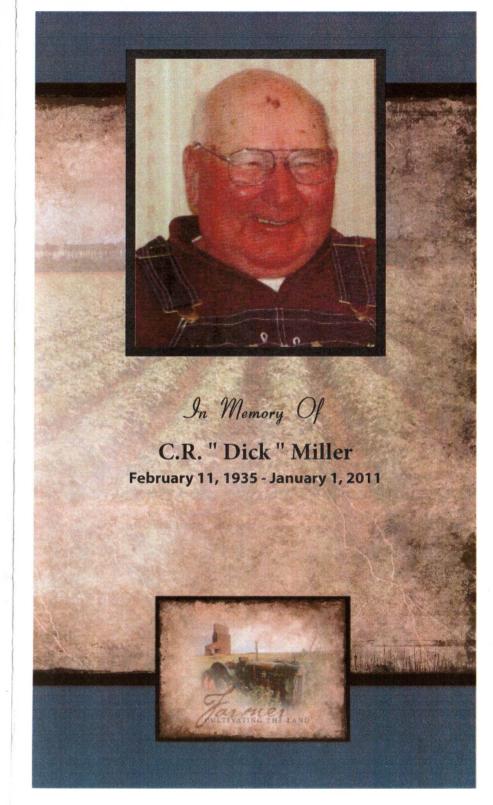

There are photos of his children and grandchildren too, And he and his wife, there are more than a few.

The smiles betray the hard times that he faced, The worries and fears, the profits erased.

By weather and markets, out of his hands, In the end, all he really had was his land.

The soil, the crops, and even the weeds, To his way of thinking, that's all he would need, To take care of his family, and help them stay safe.

ALVIN LAWRENCE MITCHELL

Alvin Lawrence Mitchell, eldest son of William Lee and Ruth Anna (Lawrence) Mitchell, was born September 24, 1917 in Brooks, Iowa. Alvin passed away on Saturday, November 3, 2001 in Greater Community Hospital in Creston, Iowa at the age of 84 years, one month and nine days.

On February 26, 1940 Alvin was united in marriage with Lois Darlene Ridnour in Shenandoah, Iowa. To this union four sons and two daughters were born.

Together they farmed northwest of Prescott, Iowa, soon moving back to Taylor County. In 1946 they purchased the Blacksmith shop in Guss, Iowa and in 1956 they moved back to a farm where their family could enjoy the country and where their hearts were.

All eight of them lived in a four room house with no running water or indoor plumbing. In 1966 it was a joy to have hot and cold running water and a bathroom!

At one time, the only way of travel was a 1937 Chevrolet pickup that was packed into like sardines. There was lots of homemade bread & beans but there wasn't any complaining.

Alvin enjoyed dancing but, in 1957 at a family reunion, Alvin broke his leg while playing football, so that ended his dancing for a while. In 1968, Alvin & Lois took square dance lessons and have been avid square dancers ever since. Alvin was a square dance caller and gave lessons in the Corning area. Alvin was a member of the Boots & Bows square dance club in Corning; a member of the Southwest Iowa Callers Association and a member of the Guss Maple Grove Church. In later years, Alvin and Lois lived in Creston.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

When you give a little kindness Each and every day,
A big reward in happiness
Is sure to come your way.
If you can wipe away a frown
And plant instead a smile,
It's more than worth the effort
And makes the day worthwhile!

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Twenty-Third Psalm The Isord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Mea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

My father was a guiet man, beloved by one and all.
Everyone who knew my Dad fond memories can recall.
He lived a very humble life, content with what he had;
I never heard him once complain, this man who was my Dad.

He farmed the land most of his life, and planted seeds in season;
The seed he sowed the deepest, grows in my heart and reason.
He taught me right from infant up, and in his gentle way,
He really drove the lesson home by living it each day.

He gave me many gifts in life, that money cannot buy. The gifts of honesty and truth I treasure very high.

He taught me to be thankful for whatever things we had; but most of all, I'm thankful that I had him for my Dad.

OF THEN AND NOW

AUTUMN WIND BLOWING
MEMORIES OF GRIDIRON DAYS LONG PAST,
OF BRIGHT YOUNG WARRIORS DOING BATTLE
FOR THE COLORS OF THE MAST,

MARCH ON THEY SAY, TO VICTORY,
SUFFER YE BRUISES AND SPRAINS,
FOR IF THERE IS NO GOAL TO REACH THERE WILL SURELY BE NO PAIN.

AND YET I WONDER TO THIS DAY
WHEN KNEES POP AND FINGERS ACHE, MAYBE THE WRITTEN WORD WOULD HAVE BEEN A FAR BETTER THING TO UNDERTAKE.

FOR TIME HAS A WAY OF CHANGING ONE FROM DOER TO HAS BEEN,
AND, IF ONLY I KNEW AS MUCH THIS DAY AS I THOUGHT I KNEW BACK THEN.

I COULD HAVE SAVED MY BODY AND USED MY MIND TO SOAR.
BUT THEN I WOULD HAVE NEVER PLAYED AND BEEN MEMORY POOR.
